

About Connie

Connie Pheiff is a successful businesswoman, author, speaker, coach, and Podcast host helping women in leadership achieve excellence and Be Unstoppable. She has authored over 450 articles and four books on leadership, productivity, personal development, marketing and influence. From drag racing, Harley riding, horse taming, tattooed DIVA... she broke the mold and is not your typical leader. She is the Unstoppable DIVA ~ the essence of a woman on a Mission. She was Director of the United States Chamber of Commerce, later becoming the Chair and CEO of Girl Scouts USA (Penn's Woods Council) from 2000 to 2006, when the Girl Scouts realigned. Since that time, she has led her own company, the Pheiff Group, and founder of Total Leadership, Business Accelerator Academy, and the Global C-Suite Women's Network. Connie is the Immediate Past President of the National Speakers Association, GLAC; Member National Speakers Association; board member Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA); and Advisory Board Member Dress for Success.

To learn more about the Pheiff Group and to hire Connie for personal coaching or to speak at your next event, go to <http://www.pheiffgroup.com>.